

Todd Williamson

Executive Coach & Facilitator – Boston

For more than 25 years, Todd has worked with organizations in the public, private, and nonprofit sectors in such diverse industries as high tech, healthcare, financial services, professional services, pharmaceuticals, and education. His business and leadership acumen has been honed by years of executive management experience where he has led people and projects through large scale organizational change initiatives. In particular, Todd has expertise implementing multi-year, global cross-functional sales and marketing systems that required significant operational and behavioral change.

Todd is an experienced people manager and his career has included senior leadership roles at Cognex and the Mathworks, and director level roles at Centra and Ceridian. In financial services, Todd was an internal consultant for MFS where he traded bonds and options, and has international experience working with Coutts & Co Private Bank in Zurich, Switzerland.

Currently, Todd coaches international executives in Harvard Business School's Program for Leadership Development and in their customized executive education programs. He also coaches senior leaders at Boston Private, Charles River Associates, McGraw Hill, Partners Healthcare, and Sunovion Pharmaceuticals. He has facilitated strategic planning sessions and off-sites, and his warm, insightful, and practical coaching style has had a positive impact on both individuals and teams. His expansive business experience combined with his passion for the leadership development field has helped individuals and teams successfully navigate through periods of significant growth and change.

Todd holds an MBA from Babson's F.W. Olin Graduate School of Business and a BA from Dartmouth College. He is a certified professional coach with the International Coaching Federation and has advanced training with the Enneagram, Myers-Briggs Type Indicator®, and Immunity to Change™ Approach. Todd is certified to use the Leadership Versatility Index 360°, The Hogan, and the EQ-i 2.0 & EQ360 from Multi-Health Systems.

In his spare time, you'll find him outdoors playing ultimate frisbee, paddle tennis, and golf, and maintaining hiking trails. He enjoys spending lake time with his family and doing home improvement projects.
