

Todd Williamson

Executive Coach

Todd is a Professional Certified Coach (PCC) with over 25 years of corporate business experience. He has worked with public, private, and nonprofit organizations in diverse industries such as high-tech, healthcare, financial services, professional services, pharmaceuticals, and education.

His business and leadership acumen has been honed by years of executive management experience, where he has led people and projects through large-scale organizational change initiatives. Todd coaches leaders at all levels, particularly those working on building more versatility in their leadership styles. This can include EQ skills, effective communication, managing up, using the coaching style of leadership, and team building.

Todd's corporate experience has included senior leadership roles at Cognex and MathWorks and director-level roles at Centra and Ceridian. In financial services, Todd was an internal consultant for MFS, where he traded bonds and options, and has international experience working with Coutts & Co Private Bank in Zurich, Switzerland.

In his spare time, you'll find him outdoors for almost anything, including hiking, biking, swimming, playing ultimate frisbee, golf, and maintaining hiking trails. He enjoys spending lake time with his family and doing home improvement projects.

Did you know? Todd is the youngest of 5 brothers.

Education:

- MBA – Babson's F.W. Olin Graduate School of Business
- BA – Dartmouth College

Certifications:

- Professional Coach Certification
- The LVI 360 (Kaiser Leadership)
- The Hogan Suite
- MBTI and TypeCoach
- EQ-i 2.0 (MHS)
- Enneagram
- Immunity to Change

Selected Clients:

Alexion, Boston Private, Cambridge Trust, Charles River Associates, Deciphera,, Mass General Brigham, Sunovion, Takeda, and Zenas BioPharma.